MONEY MATTERS

Currency – The local currency is the New Metical (MZN). It is advisable to take South African Rand or US Dollars because the exchange process is easier with these currencies.

Most hotels accept South African Rand and US Dollars (notes should not be more than 9 years old)

Credit Cards – Visa is widely accepted. A service fee of approximately 3% will be added on to the total bill if payment is made by credit card. MasterCard and American Express are less widely accepted.

Banks – Major towns have ATMs, often operated by Banco Internacional de Moçambique (BIM), and accept Visa but not MasterCard. You can change US dollars cash at most banks.

SHOPPING – What to buy: Local crafts and indigenous art can be purchased from markets in the cities and tourist areas. These include carvings and ornaments made of wood, soapstone, malachite and wire, as well as pottery, paintings and basket ware.

US AND CANADIAN IMPORT REGULATIONS – The import of meat or meat products (dried, canned etc.), plants, seeds, vegetables, fruits, livestock, endangered wildlife species and products thereof (for example clothing and accessories) into the United States and Canada is prohibited. This includes Ostrich eggs and animal skins.

FLIGHT RECONFIRMATIONS AND CHECK-IN – please refer to your air itinerary for suggested check in times. Have electronics fully charged as you may be asked to activate them for security checks.

FINAL NOTES – Some areas you visit will be quite poor by North American standards. Carry only small amounts of cash. Lock cash, valuables and passports in hotel and lodge safes or leave them with camp managers.
